

ACS Division of Chemical Education International Activities Committee

Travel Award

The Division of Chemical Education's International Activities Committee (DivCHED IAC) funds a travel award in the amount of $2000 to support either a U.S. DivCHED member who wishes to present and fully participate in an international chemistry education conference or an International DivCHED member who wishes to attend an ACS National meeting. The awardee will have the responsibility to communicate information and insights gained at the conference through postings on the DivCHED IAC website (<http://www.divched.org>) and Facebook page.

Eligibility

The applicant must be a member of the American Chemical Society's DivCHED and must be a full-time college, university, or high school faculty member. Faculty members, especially junior faculty, are eligible. Those who have not had the opportunity to attend an international meeting in chemical education will receive preference but all applications are welcome.

Application Package – Application available online at <http://divched.org/content/acs-divched-international-activities-travel-award>) or applications should be sent to Resa Kelly (resa.kelly@sjsu.edu), the current chair of CHED IAC by November 30th of each year. The application package must include:

-  1. Description of the conference - provide the pertinent URL.
-  2. Description of proposed participation in the conference.
-  3. Statement of how attendance at the conference relates to professional responsibilities.
-  4. Plan for dissemination of information from the conference to CHED members, including submission of a report to the CHED IAC Chair within three months of attendance at the conference. The report should be suitable for publication in the CHED Newsletter and for posting on the CHED website.
-  5. Applicant's Curriculum Vitae (no more than three pages).
-  6. One letter of endorsement from a supervisor (for example: department chair, dean, principal, headmaster).
-  7. An itemized estimate of expenses giving the amount of aid requested and sources of all supplemental funds.

The selected applicant will be announced by January 15 each year. An alternate will be selected in case the original awardee is not able to attend. Application available online: <http://divched.org/content/acs-divched-international-activities-travel-award>
